Dear colleagues,

Charles Swanton
(London, UK)

Roman Thomas
(Cologne, DE)

Reinhard Büttner
(Cologne, DE)

Jürgen Wolf
(Cologne, DE)

after the great success of the 1st Cologne Conference on Lung Cancer (CCLC) in April 6-7, 2017, we are again looking forward to an exciting meeting on cutting-edge translational research in lung cancer.

So we are very pleased to announce the 2nd Cologne Conference on Lung Cancer from June 26-27, 2019 which will take place again at the Maritim Hotel Cologne.

This conference brings together the best international specialists of lung cancer research to discuss the current challenges in diagnostics and therapy with topics like immune checkpoint inhibitors: resistance and combinations, immunotherapy: beyond PD1, news from the kinome, clonal heterogeneity and resistance as well targeted therapy of SCLC.

The 2nd Cologne Conference on Lung Cancer has an interactive orientation with a strong focus ondiscussion.

We are very much looking foward to seeinig you in Cologne again for this valuable two day meeting!

Sincerely,
Your Chairs

Charles Swanton
Roman Thomas
Reinhard Büttner
Jürgen Wolf
